INDEX FOR JANUARY

January 1 (Thursday)
Premier Predicts 1976 Will Prove to Be Year of Business Recovery (p. 1)
Mutsu-Ogawara Project to Advance (p. 2)
Overkill Potential Could Double (p. 3)
Former Argentine Cabinet Minister's Arrest Sought (p. 4)
'Economy Will Regain Health' (p. 5)
Editorial: A New Year Dawns
Jan. 2 (Friday)
THE PRESS HOLIDAY
Jan. 3 (Saturday)
Venezuela President Perez Nationalizes Oil Industry (p. 17)
3 Slain, 6 Hurt as Portuguese Protesters Storm Prison Gates (p. 17)
Pope Extremely Tired After Urging Gains Toward Peace (p. 19)
U.K. Queen Honors Many in Asia Region (p. 20)
MITI Sees 1976 Exports as Big Factor in Lifting Nation Out of Slump (p. 21)
Alpine Ski Supremacy Competition Wide Open (p. 26)
Editorial: A Balance of Peace for S.E. Asia
Jan. 4 (Sunday)
Rabin-Allon PLO Feud Is Denied By Israelis (p. 29)
White House, CIA Deny Report Mercenaries Being Sent to Angola (p. 29)
Cooperative Spirit Needed In Schools, Nagai Says (p. 30)
Rockwell, Lockheed Disclose To SEC Possibility of Bribes (p. 31)
Soviet Navy Is Most Potent In Fire Power: Jane's Editor (p. 32)
Rios Beats Tenryu, Retains WBA Title (p. 37)
Editorials: A Picture of Contentment
Advice on Starting the Day
Jan. 5 (Monday)
Hundreds Evacuated as Floods Hit U.K. Coast Following Storm (p. 39)
Alien Mercenaries Not Being Trained in U.S. (p. 39)
32 Hotel Guests in Aomori Treated for Gas Poisoning (p. 40)
Canada Ex-Premier's Diary Bared (p. 41)
Bomb Scares Close Many U.S. Airports (p. 42)
About 10 Heads of State Scheduled to Visit Here (p. 43)
China Eyes a Post-Mao Era (p. 43)
North-South Theme to Dominate Currency Talks in Jamaica (p. 44)
Editorials: Bluer Skies Are Possible
Antidote for Hysteria
Jan. 6 (Tuesday)
Hijackers Take Over JAL's DC8 in Manila (p. 51)
Allon Leaves for D.C. To Seek Backing at U.N. (p. 51)
Traffic Death Toll Down to 10,792 (p. 52)
Protestant Terrorists Slay 5 As IRA Warns British Gov't (p. 53)
Third World Delegates Open Talks on Strategy (p. 55)
Nikkeiren Chairman Views Autumn Upturn (p. 56)
Editorial: More Realism on Defense Pact
Jan. 7 (Wednesday)
Egypt Accuses USSR of Not Making Up War Losses, Breaking Pact (p. 63)
FNLA Hq Reported Seized (p. 63)
Most of Kyoto Heian Shrine Destroyed by Predawn Fire (p. 64)
Vorster Inaugurates TV Service (p. 65)
Int'l Women's Year Evaluated (p. 66)
New Cambodia Constitution Revealed; OK'd by Sihanouk (p. 67)
'75 Color TV Exports Hit Record 2,600,000 (p. 68)
Italy's Radici Cops First World Cup Ski Race of '76 (p. 72)
Editorials: Test of Will in Angola
Job Security or Higher Wages
Jan. 8 (Thursday)
Izvestia Defends USSR Aid to MPLA Gov't of Angola (p. 75)
50.4% Proposed Increase In Fares Filed by JNR (p. 75)
Gov't Will Ask Sasebo City to Let Mutsu Use Its Port (p. 76)
More U.K. Troops Rushed to N. Ireland After Killings (p. 77)
Democratic, Republican Hopeful Take Up Angola (p. 78)
France Urged to Boycott U.S. If Concorde Flights Denied (p. 79)
Montreal May Need More Time to Ready for Games (p. 84)
Editorial: Budget's Limited Role for Recovery
Jan. 9 (Friday)
IMF Meeting Settles Currency, Gold Issues (p. 87)
Italy Plunged Into Crisis By More Government Collapse (p. 87)
Illegal Gulf Rebates To Japan Firms Bared (p. 88)
Ecuador Cabinet Resigns; Military Gov't Said Split (p. 89)
USSR Will Not Fall for U.S. 'Backfire Trick,' Pravda Hints (p. 90)
U.S. SST Program Going On (p. 91)
1975 Auto Sales Hits Worst Levels in 13 Years in U.S. (p. 92)
Editorials: OAU and Angola's Future
JNR Fare Rate-Raise Plan
Jan. 10 (Saturday)
Chou En-lai Dies of Cancer at 78 (p. 101)
IMF Lending Ceiling To Third World Hiked (p. 101)
Annual Imperial Poetry Party Held (p. 102)
Iraq Seeks Japan's Increased Crude Oil Imports, Loans (p. 105)
Swiss Miss Zurbriggen Bags World Cup Downhill (p. 110)
Editorials: Death Takes Chou En-lai
New Special Skill Schools
Jan. 11 (Sunday)
Territorial Isles Dispute Locks Japan-Soviet Talks (p. 113)
World Leaders Note the Passing of Chinese Premier Chou En-lai (p. 113)
CO Gas Poisoning Danger Found (p. 114)
Subway Workers Win Pay Hike in Madrid (p. 115)
New Money System Sets Up Workable Framework: U.S. (p. 116)
Editorial: Currency Accords at Kingston
Jan. 12 (Monday)
OAU Meet on Angola Civil War Splits Into 2 Factions (p. 123)
PLO Sending Strong Team To UNSC Debate on Mideast (p. 123)
Gov't Soon to Notify Sasebo of Decision for N-Ship Port (p. 124)
Stewardesses Rap Concorde Uniforms (p. 125)
'Faster, Safer X-Ray' For Teeth Developed (p. 125)
Egypt Offered Japan Loan (p. 127)
Editorial: Relocating the Capital
Jan. 13 (Tuesday)
Japan, Russia Fail to Make Progress on N. Islands Issue (p. 135)
MIGs Flying in Angola: FNLA (p. 135)
Shinkansen, Other JNR Trains Snarled by Snow (p. 136)
KGB Stole NATO Missile: Book (p. 137)
Madrid Saboteurs Disrupt Rail Service With Bombing (p. 137)
Portuguese Farmers Protest Agrarian Reform Law (p. 138)
C. Itoh, Ataka Plans to Establish Merger (p. 139)
Villaflor KO's Kashiwaba to Retain Championship (p. 144)
Editorials: Opening Doors for the Handicapped
Vive le Japonais!
Jan. 14 (Wednesday)
Japan-Soviet Talks To Be Continued (p. 147)
Miki Plans to Press On For Treaty With China (p. 147)
PLO Addresses U.N. Security Council Despite U.S. Objection (p. 147)
Monbusho Orders Shunin Implemented (p. 148)
Giscard Gov't Includes 5 Women After Reshuffle (p. 149)
New Ecuador Junta Imposes Censorship (p. 150)
U.S. Nod to SST Would Have No Benefits: Sen. (p. 151)
Editorial: Contest on Middle East Future
Jan. 15 (Thursday)
Arab Resolution Will Seek Israeli Pullout, Palestine Recognition (p. 159)
Ford Seeks Angola Aid Ban End (p. 159)
Malaysia Premier Dies in London Clinic (p. 159)
Nagai Gives 'Orders' On New School Posts (p. 160)
Blind May Get 'Reading' Computer (p. 161)
New Ecuador Cabinet Contains 8 Military, 3 Civilian Ministers (p. 162)
Gulf Corp. Chairman Quits After Scandal (p. 163)
Editorial: Gromyko's Aims in Japan
Jan. 16 (Friday)
Kissinger Bares Soviet 'Clear Pledge' to East N-Arms Pact Position (p. 171)
ROK's Park Confirms Offshore Oil Find (p. 171)
71,782 Public Employees Disciplined in Fiscal 1974 (p. 172)
Soviet Ship Foils CIA Bid to Raise Sunken Sub (p. 173)
London's Magaine Names 3 'CIA Agents' at Embassy (p. 175)
U.S. Predicts China May Join World's 'Big Five' Oil States (p. 177)
Editorial: The JCP and Decadence
Jan. 17 (Saturday)
U.S. Reports Grim Position In Angola to Europe Allies (p. 183)
Proposals for Ending SALT Deadlock Outlined by U.S. (p. 183)
Gov't Eyes Sasebo Port for Repairing Nuclear Ship (p. 183)
Argentine Gov't Swings Right As Peron Fires 4 Moderates (p. 185)
Spain Parliament Extended For 1 Year by Government (p. 186)
Britain Starts Antismoking Drive (p. 197)
Economy Is Now on the Road to Recovery, EPA Reports (p. 186)
Editorials: Great Loss to Asia
Costly Kites
Jan. 18 (Sunday)
U.S.-Backed FNLA Troops Fleeing North Angolan Zone (p. 195)
Syria-PLO Dispute Develops In Strategy Talks by Arabs (p. 195)
Ministry to Order Temporary Halt in Compulsory Vaccination (p. 196)
Britain Starts Antismoking Drive (p. 197)
More USSR Grain Imports Seen (p. 198)
Editorials: Home Air Pollution
An Unusual Merger Pact
Jan. 19 (Monday)
Soviet, Cuba Agencies Claim Zaire Has Joined Angola War (p. 205)
Expo '75 Draws to a Close; Total Turnout Disappointing (p. 205)
Explosion at Mitsubishi Oil's Mizushima Plant Injures One (p. 206)
S. Korea to Set Up Oil Exploration Body (p. 207)
Sakaharov May Lose City Residency Permit (p. 208)
West Bumps East 27-18 In 1st U.S. Japan Bowl (p. 212)
Editorials: After the Fair
The Poll on National Defense
Jan. 20 (Tuesday)
Lebanese President Spurns Premier's Resignation Bid (p. 217)
Two Survivors of Ore Carrier Found; Ocean Search Restarted (p. 217)
NHK Plans to Hike TV Rates in April (p. 218)
U.S. Gov't, Pentagon Turn Blind Eye to Arms Sale Fees (p. 219)
New Scottish Labor Party Demands More 'Devolution' (p. 220)
Europe Socialists Bare Plan to Counter Communist Gains (p. 221)
Editorial: MPLA Ascendancy in Angola
Jan. 21 (Wednesday)
Further SALT Accord May Be Achieved: Ford (p. 229)
Control of Lebanon Said to Be in Moslem Hands (p. 229)
College Education to Cost More From Next School Year, Survey (p. 230)
'Gunmen Planned to Kill Yamani' (p. 231)
Probe of CIA-Missionary Link Is Promised by Ford (p. 232)
USSR Will Carve Out Canal With 250 Nuclear Devices (p. 233)
Editorial: No Sino-Soviet Thaw Yet
Jan. 22 (Thursday)
Ford Aims Budget to Keep Economy on Recovery Road (p. 255)
1st Commercial Concorde Flights Launch New Era (p. 255)
Winter Tightens Its Grip On the Japan Sea Coast (p. 256)
NATO Needs N-Defense Against Warsaw Pact Forces (p. 258)
Communist-Sponsored Rally Crushed by Police in Madrid (p. 259)
Citicorp's Earnings Climb to Record Level for 1975 (p. 260)
IOC Warns Against Ads On Clothing, Equipment (p. 264)
Editorial: Ford's 'State of the Union'
Jan. 23 (Friday)
Warring Groups Accept Cease-Fire in Lebanon (p. 267)
Diet Faces Crucial Issues (p. 267)
Fines Asked for Editor, Publisher in Porno Trial (p. 268)
Kissinger's Role in Angola Secret Aid Bared by Report (p. 270)
Arias to Seek Referendum On Spanish Cortes Reform (p. 271)
Swiss Miss, 17, Surprise Victor in Cup Ski Event (p. 276)
Editorial: NHK's Fee Raise Proposal
Jan. 24 (Saturday)
Premier Says Coping With Recession Urgent (p. 279)
Russia Proposes Cut in Ceiling of Nuclear Weapons (p. 279)
New Army Weapons Developed (p. 280)
Simplification of USSR Emigration Rules Bared (p. 281)
U.S. 'Buys' Another 5 Years In Spain Bases for $1.25 Bil. (p. 282)
U.S. N-Power Growth Slows in 1975: ERDA (p. 284)
Editorial: Mr. Miki Reasserts His Style
Jan. 25 (Sunday)
U.S. Agrees to Withdraw Missile Subs From Spain (p. 291)
Chinese Explode Nuclear Device (p. 291)
MPLA Capture of Cities In N., S. Angola Claimed (p. 291)
Record Snowstorm Abates (p. 292)
Nixon to Testify on His Gov't Role in CIA Chile Operations (p. 293)
Central Banks Pump $2 Bil. Into Foreign Exchange Marts (p. 295)
Editorials: 'House 55'
Why Technologists Are Undaunted
Jan. 26 (Monday)
City Eyes Suit Against Gov't Over Bonds Issue (p. 301)
Lebanon Truce Firms; Political Solution Muller (p. 301)
University Tuition Hikes Arouse 'Storm of Apathy' (p. 302)
Chlorella Plant Opens Near Toyama (p. 302)
Kissinger Signs 5-Year Pact With Spain for Use of Bases (p. 304)
Kitanoumi Vanquishes Wajima for 5th Title (p. 311)
Editorial: The Forgotten Lesson
Jan. 27 (Tuesday)
Ford Promises Tax Cut by 1979 but Offers No Relief for Unemployed (p. 315)
Narita Grills Premier On Budget Bonds Plan (p. 315)
Korean Loses 14-Year Court Battle to Remain in Japan (p. 316)
F5 Downed by SAM-6 In Sahara: Morocco (p. 317)
Russians in Luxembourg Engaged in Spying: Magazine (p. 318)
Portugal May Recognize MPLA Gov't of Angola (p. 319)
Grand Prix Champ Lauda Wins Opening Brazil Race (p. 342)
Editorial: War-Imposed Peace in Lebanon
Jan. 28 (Wednesday)
UNSC Palestinian Rights Resolution Vetoed by U.S. (p. 327)
Conditional OK Hinted For Hegemony Clause (p. 327)
Rumsfeld Sees Need to Increase Japan's Antisub War Capability (p. 327)
Four Hakuhodo Executives Nabbed for Breach of Trust (p. 328)
Ford Son Dating Net Star Chris Evert (p. 329)
U.S. Intelligence Agencies Spend $10,000 Mil. Yearly (p. 330)
OPEC Eyes End to $1 Billion Aid Fund Arrangements (p. 332)
Editorial: Detente: A Period of Questioning
Jan. 29 (Thursday)
U.S. House Votes to Halt More Aid to Angola Factions (p. 339)
Diet in Furore Over Alleged Torture Slaying (p. 339)
Work Begins on Mitaka Toll Gate Amid Protest (p. 340)
Patricia Hearst Trial Opens With 150 Prospective Jurors (p. 341)
U.S. House Recommends Spy Budget Disclosure (p. 342)
Italy's Christian Democrats Might Form Minority Gov't (p. 343)
Editorial: Preparing for ASEAN Summit
Jan. 30 (Friday)
Senate Okays 200-Mile Fishing Limit Bill to Be Effective July 1977 (p. 351)
Jet Transport Planes Not Arms, Exportable; Komoto (p. 351)
Tokyo Man Is Acquitted of 1971 'Parcel Bombings' (p. 352)
Michigan Court Declares 'All Hair Created Equal' (p. 353)
List of KGB Men in Italy Revealed by Milan Press (p. 354)
Moynihan 'Press Gag' Bid Fails (p. 355)
Construction Won't Be Finished Before Games (p. 360)
Editorial: Aliens' Right to Asylum
Jan. 31 (Saturday)
U.S. Must Be Ready to Check USSR Drive In Angola: Kissinger (p. 363)
Secret Code Use by U.S., Japan, ROK Units Alleged (p. 363)
Tokyo Inflation Rate Jumps To 10% Dry Weather Blamed (p. 363)
Lautrec Painting Stolen In 1968 Recovered in Osaka (p. 364)
Teacher Is Mum on 'Marcelle' (p. 364)
India Parliament Approves Tough New Press Law (p. 365)
Japan Will Conclude Silk Pact With China (p. 367)
IOC to Take Up Latest Developments on China (p. 372)
Editorials: Diet Debate Off to a Good Start
What's Next After the Veto